Presidents Message:

I want to congratulate all of our 2011 elected and appointed officers and their patience and knowledge in helping in our transition into 2011. Vice President, Betty David; Secretary, Lynne Deutscher; Treasurer, Robin Reeves; Music Director, Bill Cooper; Booking Agent, John Rosploch; Newsletter Editor, Ardie Jarrett; Membership, Sheila Welt; Webmaster, John Rosploch; Hospitality, Mickie McDonald; Festival Chair, John Rosploch.

We are preparing for our Third Annual Summer Jazz Banjo Festival which will take place at Crowne Plaza Hotel in Concord on June 11 & 12, 2011. This event is being chaired by John Rosploch with the show choreographed by Tim Perry. Our headliners are Fred “Mickey” Finn and Cathy Reilly. We are featuring Wineland Banjo Band, Happy Time Banjos, Oakland Banjo Band, San Francisco Banjo Band, Peninsula Banjo Band, Sacramento Banjo Band, and event host East Bay Banjo Club.

Tim Perry is working on confirming solo performers for the show. We have several committees working on the Festival, and most of the club members are pitching in to help get the word out and solicit ads for the festival program. It is a lot of work, but getting to be a labor of love. What better way to educate the community then to have two days packed with banjo music?

So get your show and hotel reservations in now as space is limited by going to www.summerjazzbanjofestival.com, for more information call 925-864-3692 or email bookingagent@eastbaybanjo.org.

The Banjo has a long history, and is part of Americana. The Banjo is the only instrument native to the U.S. As your President, my aim is to continue to promote the 4 string Banjo through its music. Lastly, I would like the Banjo Club to continue to be a means for learning & educating while being a fun filled experience. Please feel free to contact me anytime you have a question, suggestion, or concern. Remember, Smile ....

Diablo Lodge January 29, 2011

Reported by June Rosploch

Scheduled play out started at 6:15 PM

Seventeen East Bay Banjo members clad in the formal gold vest uniforms arrived with ample time to set up for the performance while the residents of Diablo Lodge finished dinner. What a grand looking location to call home. The common area with high ceilings, warm dining area and a cozy library is inviting.

The alcove which served as our stage area had ample space for our group. It is nice when performing to look up and see the audience smiling back. Yes, I do practice what I preach to our group, "Look up, make eye contact with the audience and smile." I continue to be amazed at how the old stand-by songs are always the best received. We definitely need a lot of practice before attempting to perform Tiger Rag out in public again. I heard one of our members say, "It was good the audience was not aware of all the air strumming."

A Good Time Was Had By All!!!

Orchestra By Day, Banjo Band by Night

Wearing his great-grandfather's old bowler hat and a gold vest, Jack plays quick "oom-pah" blasts to toe-tapping songs like Susanna or (Won't You Come Home) Bill Bailey at Round Table Pizza in Pleasant Hill. He plays alongside seasoned and beginning banjoists and ukulele players as a member of the East Bay Banjo Club.

"The best part of the band is being with all my fellow club members and telling banjo jokes," says Jack, who is one of only three players under the age of 18. Banjoist Marco Green is only 6 years old. (Most of the club's 60 members are older than 60.)

Jack has played with the club for nearly a year, but his connection with the group started at age 3 when his mom, Lauren, took him to the pizza parlor to watch the band play on the nights his dad, Kevin, played softball. Longtime member Terry Horner began inviting the boy up on stage to play percussion.

"He took to the hokey instruments I play like the washboard and gut bucket (a bucket attached to a long stick with strings on it)," Horner says. "He was a natural – a really happy kid that had rhythm and reveled in making noise."

Through the years, Jack returned frequently and became a regular on stage, but then he and his mom stopped coming for a while. Last year, they dropped by to listen to the band again and to chat with Horner.

"It'd been a few years since we'd seen him," Horner says. "He told me he had started playing the tuba and had it in the car, and I encouraged him to bring it in. We had another tuba player in the band who showed him what to do. For a kid, it just takes a nudge and there you are with an instrument."

Soon after, Jack joined the club and began learning new songs with the help of volunteer Jack Convery—a renowned banjoist who has played alongside Bing Crosby, Ella Fitzgerald and Arthur Godfrey and was named the United Artists' "Best Banjoist of Northern California" in 1973. Convery teaches new members how to play the instruments and encourages them. Jack now knows more than 150 songs and plays occasional solos with Jack Convery. He says the experience has given him a greater appreciation of music and the people who love it.

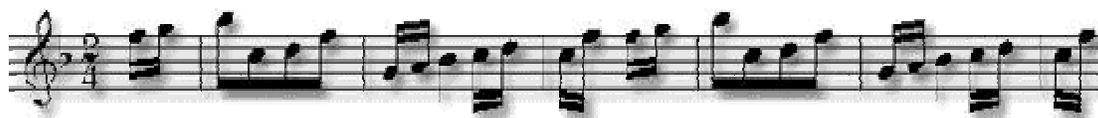

What's his favorite class at De La Salle H.S.? You guessed it: Music. "Going to a class where all the kids have a common interest is really motivating ..." "Music can change your whole life. It opens your eyes to see all the people who share your interest. Because of music, I have made great friends and I understand the commitment it takes to get something accomplished. Jack is a Freshman at De La Salle and also plays the sousaphone in the marching Band.

- ⇒ The EBBC was well represented on a JazzSeaCruise through the Panama Canal, January 2-15. Jesse and Georgette DeTorres, along with Georgette's mom; Chris and Terry Horner; and Jack and Diana Starr boarded the Celebrity Constellation in San Diego, visiting Cabo San Lucas, Acapulco, and Huatulco, Mexico; Puntarenas, Costa Rica; The Panama Canal Zone; Cartagena, Columbia; and the everglades at Ft. Lauderdale, FL. When not ashore on great excursions, we had non-stop music on board with our rehearsals, clinics, workshops, and performances including those of 5 famous Dixieland bands. Next year's January JazzSeaCruise will tour the Caribbean for 11 days and start at only $879.
- ⇒ The EBBC was well represented on Jack Convery's Banjo Snow Train to Reno, Feb. 8-10. Guy and Mary Black, Clyde Dedmon, Lynne Deutscher, Karen DeWeese, Chris and Terry Horner, Gerry Kerr, Bob and Diane Malucelli, Dina Melamed, Bob and Kit Nelson, Larry and Diane Risner, and Sheila Welt joined the 5th annual pilgrimage to pluck and play at Harrah's Reno resort. Jack Convery took us on Amtrak this year, accompanied by Martinez Seniors. Jack and his wife Laura made us all grand box lunches for the train ride. Jack did a noble job, monitoring the group on and off the train, into the hotel, leading jam sessions on the train, teaching a spirited group music lesson and rehearsal, leading a well attended evening show, and even providing a spontaneous concert in the Amtrak station when the returning train was an hour late. We hope he can arrange more great trips, maybe even a cruise to Alaska or Mexico!

Message From Your Editor...

June Rosploch is a tough act to follow, but I will try to fill her past editor shoes. As a new member in EBBC, I am still trying to put names to faces. I am interested in learning what you would like included in this Newsletter. I personally have enjoyed reading about the history of the group, its members and musical humor. I am hoping that Terry Horner will continue to do profiles on band members. Please feel free to send your interesting tid-bits, thoughts, and concerns to me at:

editor@eastbaybanjo.org I am not familiar with Microsoft Publisher, and many other things, so please bare with me.

Thank You for your support and encouragement.

Rules for Playing

1. Everyone should play the same piece.
2. Observe the repeat signs only if what you just played was interesting.
3. If you play a wrong note, glare at one of the other players.
4. The right note, at the wrong time, is a wrong note. (And vice-versa)
5. A wrong note, played timidly, is a wrong note.
6. A wrong note, played with authority, is simply your interpretation of the phrase.
7. If everyone gets lost except you, follow the ones who are lost.
8. Strive always to play the maximum notes per second. This will intimidate the weaker players and gain you the admiration of the ignorant.
9. Markings for slurs, dynamics, and accidentals should be completely ignored. They are only there to make the score look more complicated.
10. If a passage is difficult, slow down. If it is easy, speed up. Everything will even itself out in the end.
11. You have achieved a true interpretation when, in the end, you have not played one note of the original piece.
12. When everyone else stops playing, you should stop also. Do not play any notes you may have left over.
13. Blessed are those without perfect pitch, for the kingdom of music is theirs.

All this seemed to make sense to Dick Williams
